Dr. Dhinuk Puspita Kirana, M.Pd

For actively participating in the International Scholar Engagement lecture entitled:

“Ethnolinguistics and Its Significance: From the Himalayas to Indonesia” organized by the Department of English Literature, Faculty of Humanities, Universitas Islam Negeri Maulana Malik Ibrahim Malang on Thursday, September 18, 2025.

The lecture, delivered by Dr. Mark W. Post (The University of Sydney), explored the significance of ethnolinguistics as the study of language within culture, highlighting community-based field research, its relevance to the human sciences, and insights from the Eastern Himalayas with potential applications in Indonesia.

We truly appreciate your participation and commitment to academic enrichment.

Dekan,

Dr. M. Faisol, M.Ag.
